Attached is a draft proposed response to Chairman Price on the Harrington resolution of inquiry, H. Res. 205. Also attached is the President's Counsel, Mr. Areeda's, revised report to Chairman Morgan on companion resolution 207 which was referred to the Foreign Relations Committee. We were advised that 206 and 207, directed to the Secretary of State, were unfavorably reported from the Foreign Affairs Committee by a margin of 19 to 9 and 20 to 8.

In the interest of assuring conformity with the Administration's position, State, and DOD, a copy of the draft has been LDX'd to Tom Lattimer, DOD, and Les Janka, NSC staff, the latter to assure that it meets with the approval of Scowcroft and Areeda.

At the same time, we are coordinating with Warner, DDO and [REDACTED]. We have also asked [REDACTED] to draw up, in blind memo form, answers to the specific questions raised in the resolution which could affect the Agency with the idea that it might be used by Slatinshek in executive session to indicate what the answers to the questions are based upon information already made available to the Intelligence Subcommittee.
